

Please do not let LPFM have priority over FM translation service.

K-Love Radio has become very important in my life and my ability to get through a rough time. The local community has been greatly affected as I can tell by the grander numbers coming to our church and others. The talk is all about this new station and how it is so family friendly and giving. If this station is overridden by another, it would be a terrible shame for adults and children alike.